Background

First held in 2021, Brunei MYCE is an annual series of conferences and exhibitions planned for one month that brings together experts and key players in selected fields. 2022 Brunei MYCE will have 5 weekly themes, namely Islamic (1 – 4 June), Digital Technology (8 – 11 June), Energy (15 – 18 June), Climate Change (22 – 25 June) and Economy (28 June – 2 July). 2022 Brunei MYCE marks the first time an Economy Week will be organised.

The objective of Brunei MYCE is to promote knowledge sharing, brainstorming, sharing of new discoveries in various fields and increasing networking and business activities among experts and entrepreneurs from within and outside the country.

Theme

Towards a Dynamic and Sustainable Economy

Date

28 June – 2 July 2022

Location

International Convention Centre, Brunei Darussalam

Aims & Objectives

Economy Week, hosted by the Ministry of Finance and Economy, will focus on economic growth and development. It will focus on GDP and how to encourage growth, the continued development of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) which will in turn lead to the strengthening of the private sector, as well as the promotion of trade and Free Trade Agreements (FTAs).

Economy week will provide a platform for experts and policymakers to share knowledge and discuss on topics ranging from the current global and regional economic outlook to topics more focused on Brunei's economic growth towards achieving Wawasan Brunei 2035.

Outcomes

- 1 Deepen understanding of Brunei's economy, and the contributors of economic growth.
- 2 Enhance knowledge and understanding of the global and regional economic outlook.
- 3 Provide opportunities for the public, especially budding entrepreneurs, to broaden their knowledge and awareness on setting up and developing a business through the workshops conducted.
